

The Waterville Historical Society
Wakeman Archival Research Center
2014 - 2015 Winter Hours

Wakeman Archival Research Center,
located upstairs at 401 Farnsworth Road in Waterville, Beginning on November 1st will be open by appointment until May 2015.

Beginning November 1 through April the Wakeman Archival Research Center will be open by appointment, and depending on the weather conditions and availability of staff, the archives will be open Wednesday mornings at 10 a.m. Look for the "Open" flag on the front of the building. Located upstairs at Wakeman Hall, 401 Farnsworth Road, the archives is staffed by Waterville Historical Society volunteers and contains records of Waterville organizations, businesses, churches, schools, cemeteries, etc., as well as family files and local history. Admission is free. Call 419-878-3425 or 419-878-2576 for more information or to make an appointment.